

THIS IS OUR LAST MONTH in business in Albuquerque. Our business for November shows an actual increase over November, 1904, of MORE THAN FIFTY PER CENT. Now for December, we will add additional help, and beginning tonight, December 1, our store will be kept open evenings, for the accommodation of those who cannot come in during the day. We are going out of business, but we flatter ourselves that our guarantee is GOOD. We will save you TWENTY PER CENT on CUT GLASS AND CHINA, and MORE THAN THAT ON DIAMONDS. Call early while our stock is complete.

H. E. FOX,
New Mexico's Leading Jeweler.

A freight wreck west of Needles, Cal., delayed traffic on the west end yesterday. No. 2, due to arrive in Albuquerque at 3 a. m., did not arrive until 10:50 last night. Trains from the east were all on time last night.

George C. Gregg, and wife of Crawfordville, Ind., arrived in the city last night, and will remain for a few weeks. Mr. Gregg is a well known journalist of Crawfordville.

Miss Mabel C. Haywood, of Washington, D. C., arrived in the city last evening, and will spend the day in the city visiting friends. Miss Haywood was formerly in the Indian service and is quite well known at the Albuquerque Indian school. She is on her way east from a visit to California and has been visiting the Indian pupils en route east.

R. E. Manger of the Harvey system, arrived in the city last night, accompanied by John Stein, manager of the New Mexico division. Mr. Stein is about to enjoy a vacation and is showing Mr. Manger his section of the territory. Mr. Stein will leave in a few days for New York, after which he will join his family at Newton, Kas., where they will proceed to California for a few weeks' outing.

Thomas Ford, for some time a member of the police force and formerly owner of the Silver Avenue livery stable, has bought the stock of the Highland livery stable from Owen Dinsdale, has taken a lease on the building and will conduct the business in future. Mr. Dinsdale will remain in charge of the stables, which will be enlarged and improved.

George H. Moore will be sixty years of age today and will celebrate the event in a very quiet manner. His friends insist that he is growing younger as the years pass by and aptly bear them out in this statement. Mr. Moore is one of the old timers in New Mexico and has been a resident of Albuquerque since it was a village.

Yesterday was Guadalupe day at Isleta, one of the time-honored feast days of that ancient pueblo. The day was given over to the celebration, which is in the order of a religious ceremony. There was no dancing, but during the day the residents of the village thronged the little parish church where the services were held.

E. A. Miera, of Cuero, is in the city on business and will remain for a couple of days. Mr. Miera is the treasurer and collector of Sandoval county and is one of the best known men in New Mexico. He is a very prosperous wool grower and merchant and cleared over $125,000 on wool during the present year.

John Jameson, at present agent of the Santa Fe railway at Isleta, has resigned and his place will be filled on December 15th, by Thomas M. Lyons of St. Joseph, Mo. Mr. Jameson will come to Albuquerque where he will be assigned to a position with the Santa Fe.

The Woman's Guild of St. John's church will meet this afternoon for work in their Guild hall at 2:30. All members are requested to be present; as matters of importance will be laid before them.

Mrs. J. H. Shuffelbarger left last night for Emporia, Kansas, called there by the sudden death of her brother, D. W. Hamer, of the well known firm of Hamer and Hamer.

Ike Graham yesterday purchased three lots on North Fourth street, between Fruit and New York avenues and will erect a modern seven-room residence thereon.

There will be a called meeting of the board of managers of the Albuquerque Woman's club this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the club parlors.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

Our Holiday Goods are now on display and we invite your early attention. Any article selected will be laid aside for you upon payment of a deposit.

DIAMONDS.—We are leaders in fine diamonds, both in solitaire and clusters. We have finger rings, earrings, brooches, studs, lockets, etc. We bought our diamonds long before the recent advance and our prices are lower than you can buy similar goods for anywhere. Ask for our special guarantee on diamonds.

WATCHES.—Of every description—silver, gold-filled and solid gold. We have good reliable gold-filled watches from $7.50 up.

JEWELRY.—Suitable for old or young. Rings, brooches, earrings, bracelets, neck chains, lozenges, etc.

SILVERWARE.—Everything suitable for Christmas presents, as well as for the table. Knives and forks, carving sets, nut sets, cake baskets, fruit dishes, tea sets, chocolate sets, water jugs, toilet sets, manicure sets, military brushes sets, jewel boxes, handkerchief and glove boxes, shaving and smoking sets, etc., etc.

CUT GLASS and Hand-painted China.—Compare our prices on these goods with others.

REMEMBER.—Everything we sell is absolutely guaranteed. We are not selling out or leaving town. We have been with you 22 years and our establishment is one of the institutions of Albuquerque. Drop in and look around. You will be welcome.
